Privacy Statement

The British Council complies with the Brazilian General Data Protection Law (LGPD), the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), and data protection laws and regulations in other countries that follow internationally accepted best practices.

The British Council will use the information you provide in the application form to communicate with you about your application for the CALL Emerging Artists Fund Brazil-UK 2026-2027 and to provide you with information about the delivery of this programme, such as participation in mandatory training workshops and optional networking events. Your application will be entered into our secure systems and may be transferred to other countries for processing under European Commission-approved Standard Contractual Clauses.

We will share your application with an independent panel of assessors who are specialists in the arts and culture sector. To ensure fairness, assessors must disclose any conflict of interest if they have any link to any of the applicants, in which case they will not be able to judge those applications. The British Council will also share information with its monitoring and evaluation partners engaged to conduct research studies to monitor and evaluate outcomes. Please refer to the Terms of Reference for a more detailed explanation.

The legal basis for processing your information is your consent, which you must indicate by ticking the consent box below. You also have the right to withdraw your consent for personal data processing at any time by contacting us via the provided form. If you withdraw your consent, your application for the CALL Emerging Artists Fund Brazil-UK 2026-2027 cannot be considered further.

You have the right to request a copy of the information we hold on you and the right to request corrections to any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with a privacy regulator. For detailed information about your rights, please refer to the privacy section of our website. We will retain your information for a period of 7 years from the time of collection.
